THE VOICE OF THE HIGHLANDS

THIS WEEK'S PRESS RUN—1806

HALIBURTON, ONTARIO Thursday, May 4, 1961

Established in 1882 as the Minden Echo & Haliburton Recorder

New Traffic Regulations In Haliburton Village

Like other centres, the village of Haliburton is plagued with traffic problems. It is just a case of more cars and less parking space, especially during the summer months.

In last week's issue of the Echo a by-law was published regarding the changes that are to be made in the already existing regulations and those who drive vehicles in and around the village would do well to read same carefully in order to save themselves a lot of grief in the future.

Parking rules on Maple Ave. from Highland St. to Mountain St. will be brought in line with those already existing on Highland St.

Another new regulation to come into effect as soon as the proper signs are erected is in regard to U turns.

Clause C in the new by-law under the heading "Restrictions" reads as follows: "When properly worded signs have been erected and are on display no person shall make a U turn at either of the following intersections: (I) Highland St. with Cedar Ave. and York St.; (II) Highland St. with Maple Ave.

Spring Follies Of 1961

Last Tuesday, April 25 the class conducted by Mrs. Joy Strong presented their spring dance recital at the community centre.

Mrs. E. Bush voted a round of applause to all who had made this concert possible.

Presentation of corsages were made to Mrs. Strong and Mrs. Denzil Cox by Sherry Anderson and Carol Hewitt and gifts to these two ladies by Molleen McInerney and Susan Griffiths.

A very splendid welcome was given by Gaye Coney-beare followed by a country dance with Ann Cox, Susan Griffiths, Judy Jackson, Colleen Cooper, Molleen McInerney and Carol Hewitt.

The balloon dance was done by Cynthia Kellett, Mary Welch, Jane Daniel and Caroline Fleming.

Following this four kittens and a mother was presented by Anne Marie Griffiths, Islay Sears, Sherry Anderson and Gaye Coney-beare.

A very pretty fairy dance, the "Rose Ballet" was done by Caroline Fleming.

After this was the "Toy Shop," a skit of a toymaker whose dolls came to life for an hour and gave an amusing time.

The "Waltz Time" dance was done very gracefully by Miss Barbara Deacon.

With the "Whistle A Merry Tune" music six girls, Nance Easton, Shannon Kernohan, Stephanie Pritchard, Patsy Deacon, Theresa Strong and Christina Snell, in various colors gave a spritely dance.

"A Tisket A Tasket" was done by Nancy Nesbitt, Susan Lee, Dianne Taylor, Deborah Hewitt and Rose Marie Dollo.

The next was "Jingle Bells" and was done in lively manner by Leslie Armstrong, Fay Coulter, Suzanne Burke and Dianne Earle.

The Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs was done in dance style with Theresa Strong, Susanne Deacon, Nancy McInerney, Dianne

Variety Show Planned In Minden

The sparkling variety and minstrel show on the nights of May 12 and 13 at the recreation centre in Minden promises to be the fore-runner of our most successful tourist season.

Bob Harvey Sr., who has written and is producing the show, has gathered together some of the most surprising talent in the community. It's not every day you'll get to see and hear endmen like Deke and Jack Jackson, Norm Maidens, Lorne Coburn, Harry Earle, Hal Burton, Clarence McInerney and Earl Palmer.

This collection of mirth provoking comedians will be more than ably assisted by the very popular Madrigal singers, conducted by Mrs. Norman Finney, with solos by Bill Lister and Betty Hicks. This musical part of the program is worth the price of admission alone.

Chas. "Slim" Brandon will be at the old music box and Geo. Laidlaw, "Pud" Hamilton, the Kinsmen Hillbillies, and a surprise act from out of town will all contribute to the evening's fun.

Why not make this a family party, and make sure your neighbors are reminded to be on hand.

Times, ticket sales, etc., are all advertised in this edition.

Taylor, Beverley Coulter, Allison Brandon Catherine Fleming, Darlene Austin, Linda Dudman, Adele Coulter and Susan Bush.

Mr. C. McInerney was announcer and Mrs. Bob Ewers played music during intermission.

Next came the "Frolic of the Holiday with girls for each month and each holiday and the crowning of the new queen with the entire cast taking part.

This was a splendid concert and shows what our own area can produce and all should be proud to have taken part in this fine recital.

Letters To Editor

Dear Sir:

As a cottager of the Haliburton area and well aware of the water shortage, I was much interested in your editorial, "The Fight For Water." I must, however, take exception to a few statements made by one who aspires to be "The Voice of the Highlands."

We are dealing with a highly controversial and complex problem, one that needs co-operation and delicate handling in order to prevent a fiasco of two parties bitterly opposed to one another. A prolonged debate and bitter words can only result in last endeavor and a hindrance to an amicable solution to all concerned.

Your position as editor must be trustworthy and unbiased to either side. We must recognize that people below us on the canal system also have problems, and also the right to a fair share of water from a system grossly outdated, and growing more sluggish each year. Such statements as "high handed manner," in reference to the Dept. of Transport and "because a few yacht owners wish to puddle up and down the Trent canal," only tends to irritate a situation already greatly aggravated by a current water shortage.

To further show this trend of statements without knowledge, may I quote from a letter to the editor dated Thursday, April 20. A Mrs. Taylor of Twelve Mile Lake writes, "As we know this is due to the selfishness of those connected with the non-productive, not too popular and very costly Trent valley canal system." Here again is a statement that tends to irritate, for the statement, as shown against facts and figures is not true.

Mrs. Taylor's call for organization is, however, the beginning to the ultimate solution. I believe a representative committee from the complete system (upper and lower) who, in turn would delegate to a co-operative, overall solution.

Champion of a cause, with openly stated convictions is admirable. However incomplete knowledge only tends to aggravate and leaves oneself open to barbed criticism.

Sincerely yours,
Alex Wilson,
Haliburton Lake.

Syl Apps To Speak At Haliburton Rotary

Syl Apps, one of the greatest centre ice stars ever to wear a Toronto Maple Leaf hockey uniform, will be the guest speaker at the father and son night at Haliburton Rotary Club on Thursday, May 11.

Syl Apps, who has had a world of experience both in professional hockey and in the business world, will be, without doubt, one of the most interesting speakers ever to give a talk to the Haliburton Rotary club.

Going back into Syl's hockey past, it might be recalled that he played with many Stanley cup champions while in Toronto and also played with such great stars as Turk Broda, Gordie Drillon, Bob Davidson and many others too numerous to mention.

He is now with a very prominent business firm and a very active member in Rotary. So we are all looking to the visit of Syl Apps, one of hockey's all time greats, at the Haliburton Rotary club on Thursday, May 11.

If you haven't got a boy of your own there will be one in town only too anxious to hear this great speaker.

Sorry Story, Happy Ending

John L. is an excellent example of the redemptive work of the Salvation Army. He was a lad who had gone the wrong road simply because of adverse influences. A bad start was made during World War II, when, without the strong hand of a parent he "joined the crowd."

When discharged, his parents, who were respectable citizens, were horrified at his loose ways.

Unable to agree with his parents, John "went places" spent his discharge pay in seeing sights, and fell easy prey to undesirable companions. He sank lower and lower, and finally became an alcoholic and drug addict.

Arrested for a minor offence, he spent a week end in jail. While there he was visited by the local Salvation Army officer who saw that the young chap was capable of better things. He took an interest in John, and spoke to the magistrate who willingly assented to the officer taking John under his wing.

Lodgings were found in the Army's hostel. John attended the services, and was rehabilitated spiritually and morally. After a period of work at the Army's industrial plant he found a decent job in a local factory. His parents were overjoyed and overcome with gratitude.

Now, here's the question: How much would that same

M.P. Speaks To 'Trappers' Assn.

The Haliburton Trappers' Association held their spring social meeting Friday, May 28 at the Orange hall, Haliburton.

This was the largest trappers meeting ever to be held in the country as 100 trappers and their wives attended.

Mr. Bill Ward was chairman of the meeting. After giving a short talk on the club he called on Harold Bannon, president of the Haliburton association, who gave an outline of the success this club has accomplished during the last year.

He stated that last year trappers sold at Haliburton over $21,000 worth of raw furs, while this year sales totaled over $33,700, proof that the association is on the move ahead.

He called on all trappers to keep up their co-operation and by next year the club may double its membership.

The chairman then called on the reeve of the municipality of Dysart, Mr. Holly young man have cost the taxpayer if he had gone from bad to worse, and had finally landed up in one of the great penal institutions in Canada? It is worth a thought when pondering the amount of the cheque you will hand the Salvation Army this year.

HALIBURTON NEWS LETTER . . .

A good many trout fishermen were visitors here over last week end, but before coming they were warned that they would be faced with very cool weather and shallow streams and the warning proved all too true. From what we can learn very few trout were taken.

We are sorry to report that Glen Hodgson is in Toronto General Hospital. We understand he will undergo bone grafting treatments. Owing to a leg injury Glen has been compelled to spend lengthy periods in bed and has been getting about on crutches at other times. Despite that he has had to spend the greater part of the last two years on his back he has never let it get him down and one cannot help but admire the manner in which he has carried on during trying circumstances.

The question is being asked from time to time just what, if anything, has come of the meeting held on the evening of Monday, April 10 to discuss the matter of water and sewage in this village. The next step of course is to have a survey made which will cost approximately $1,000. It is our understanding that the council will shortly take this step. It would appear that a goodly proportion of our citizens are coming to the conclusion that action on either sewage or water is necessary if our village is to keep pace with the progress being made in other centres.

From time to time local gloom dispensers are telling us the Lindsay and Halibur-ton branch of the CNR is on its last legs but from the amount of express and freight that arrived here on Tuesday it looks like it will be a few days before the rails are taken up. Another very sad tale bandied about is that our theatres are about to close. Well, strange as it may seem, despite the depressed state of our economy, show business at both the Molou and Beaver theatres is on the upgrade. It would seem that our people still get a kick out of a good movie, especially if they do not have to listen to a lot of wacky commercials. The writer took the opportunity to visit our local theatre one Saturday evening and despite the fact that one of the NHL telecasts was in progress at the time there was an exceptionally fine crowd in attendance.

MINDEN W.I.
Twenty-nine members of Minden W.I. met on Monday, April 24 at the home of Mrs. H. Welch for the annual meeting and election of officers for 1961-62.

Mrs. E. Harding, president opened the meeting in the usual manner. Three members attended from Haliburton.

Mrs. A. Coulter, treasurer, in her report stated that our receipts were $605.65 and we have a balance on hand of $151.75.

Letters and cards of thanks were read and Mrs. Wm. Welch, gifts and card convener, reported a balance on hand of $9.21. Today's collection amounted to $4.02.

It was decided to donate $5 to the cancer fund.

The yearly honorarium of $10 each to the secretary and treasurer was approved.

Tickets on the W.I. quilt amounted to $41.65. Mrs. Fairfield held the lucky number and expressed her appreciation in having a W.I. quilt as a keepsake.

Mrs. H. Welch in her report of the April directors' meeting at Fenelon Falls said that the Lindsay fair board report that our W.I. exhibit constituted a highlight of the exhibition.

A letter outlining a bus trip to Niagara Falls proposed for May 17 drew a great deal of interest. Our trip last June was such a success owing to the generous hospitality shown us by our member of parliament, that it's now no trouble to fill a bus.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. L. Pritchard, Haliburton, Monday, May 15.

The election of officers was conducted by Mrs. H. Welch. The retiring president, Mrs. Ed. Harding, received gracious appreciation of her six years service. A letter from the society of 43 members contained a small gift and words of gratitude.

The following are the officers elected for 1961-62: president, Mrs. A. Kernohan; first vice, Mrs. Macarthur; second vice, Mrs. Holly Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. M. Sears; secretary, Mrs. A. Coulter; district director, Mrs. H. Welch; branch directors, Mrs. N. Ward, Mrs. J. Graham, Mrs. E. Trumbull, Mrs. E. Kirkwood; convenors of standing committees, agriculture and Canadian industry, Mrs. A. Noice; citizenship and education, Mrs. Lunham; historical research and current events, Mrs. B. J. Walker; public relations, Mrs. Jas. Fairfield.

The meeting closed with the Queen and a social hour.

half hour and the delicious lunch served by the ladies.

There was a suggestion box for any new ideas as to programs for another year. Mrs. Prentice's room won the banner and award for most parents present.

Mrs. Don Berry now called on Mr. Archie Stouffer to give us his travelog on his recent trip to Europe and he very ably entertained us for quite some time, giving a commentary of the outstanding points of interest as he went along. Mrs. Lidster thanked him for coming and giving us such an interesting topic.

Mr. Brubacer then spent a few minutes reporting on the work being done regarding the retarded children's work and the formation of a group to plan for these children in this area.

The meeting closed with the singing of "God Save the Queen."

 THE MINDEN STORY
 Chapter 11

Both the Dickson Lumber Co. of Peterboro and the Strickland firm with headquarters at Lakefield used the Minden clergy house as a storehouse depot from which their various logging shantys were supplied. Across the river, Rathburn's, whose mills were situated at Deseronto and whose limits extended through part of Stanhope township, also maintained a warehouse for supplies and horse feed. Its caretaker for many years was James Simpson. Long time graduates of Minden's public school still recall how delicious a handful of raisins acquired from Mr. Simpson's warehouse which had to be passed several times during a school day, used to taste.

It took two years for logs from Haliburton county to reach the Deseronto mills but, unlike the Gilmour company, Rathburns seem to have operated profitably for many years. Among some of their bush superintendents and foremen were Jimmie Doxje and Ben and Arthur Callaghan.

Miquel and Dyament with mills at Bracebridge also employed many local loggers, some of whom still remember a foreman, Murdock McKay, who was affectionately known as "Old Murdy." Green and Ellis who had mills at Fenelon Falls had a canny walking boss, John Ellis, whose employees called him "Forty Percent John" because he always expected a maximum effort for minimum wages.

So many lumber firms have logged in the Minden area at various times that it is almost impossible to keep track of them all. For instance J. E. Gould lumbered Anson township while the Weaver Lumber Co. took the timber from Hindon. In Sherbourne township the famous J. D. Shiers operated for many years while Sandy (Alexander) Hayes of the Scotch Line logged in Longford township. His brother, Wattie (Walter) was one of the best known and kindly regarded foremen to originate from Minden. Like the colorful buccaneers of the Caribbean, Wattie Hayes who moved to the prairie provinces before World War I, wore little gold rings in his ears. Others who affected this novel custom were Duncan McIntosh and Albert Morphett.

Among the other famous walking bosses who are still remembered are three who shared the same first name—Jim Grant, Jim McDonald and Jim Aiken.

In addition to the logging companies, local farmers often took out timber which they piled in dumps along the rivers and lakes to be sold to one of the big companies and absorbed by its drive.

With so many firms using the Gull River to transport their timber to the mills it is little wonder that spring in Minden was an exciting time for everyone. The darkening of the ice in the lakes was a signal that the annual aquatic epic could begin and the sporting men of the village placed their bets on which log drive would reach Minden first. The winning firm had a stake worth contending for—a full load of water to carry their drive through and a head start down the lakes for the sooner a drive reached the mills the greater the margin of profit.

When the race was close, the losers often had to sit along the bank for many days while their successful rivals herded their logs to the open water in Gull Lake. With good luck it took an average drive of 150,000 pieces the better part of a week to run from Horseshoe dam to Gull Lake.

What a wonderful time the boys of the village had when the drive was passing through Minden. The more adventurous rode and ran logs to their hearts content in spite of an occasional ducking in the icy waters. If they misjudged the distance and were carried out into the treacherous current, some good natured white water man trailing down the river was always on hand to rescue them.

Sometimes the logs, jamming at the village bridge, reached all the way back to the clergy house. When this happened the "jam crackers" had an appreciative audience and the village folk were provided with a thrilling spectacle to the mutual satisfaction of all concerned.

During the weeks the logs ran the Gull River, the drivers pitched their tents at Burns' eddy. If the company employed many local men, the camp was besieged by a friendly invasion of visitors from Minden to whom the good natured cooks dispensed hospitality and raisin pie in equal quantities.

Maybe those river driving chefs used some secret ingredient or knew some culinary magic which has been lost to the world or perhaps there was something built into the ovens of those old wood burning camp stoves which were manufactured by Adam Hall of Peterboro, but the opinion of all the "chuck samplers" (the drivers' name for their guests) is unanimous; the raisin pie produced by those cooks at Burns' eddy was the best they had ever tasted! Some of these master chefs who specialized in this delicacy were Samuel Gouldie, Walter E. Wright, Lew Manning, Eldon Russell and William Stamp.

Before the advent of electricity, the passage after dark of the alligator from the foot of Mountain Lake across the portage to Barry's barn on the Gull River, drew large audiences from the village. That first alligator's floodlight, run by a steam generator, was a nine days wonder. To cross the portage, the amphibious alligator was mounted on steel banded wooden wheels a foot wide and two feet high. In later years the Gull River Co. eliminated this obstacle by maintaining two alligators, one on Gull Lake and one on the waters above the dam. Both were constructed by Mr. Alfred Langdon of Minden who also built the large gasoline boat which in the final years of the company's operation replaced one of the alligators.

Another innovation introduced by the Gull River Co. was the maintenance of two complete cribs to transport the driver's cooking and sleeping equipment, one for the waters below the Stinson mills and one for the upper lakes. The older companies always tore their cribs apart at the Horseshoe bridge and ran the timber through Sanderson's rapids and the chute at the mill dam to be caught below the falls by men in punts and reassembled.

Of all the logging companies who drove their timber down the Gull River, the most closely connected with the Minden area was the Gull River company for it was founded and staffed by Minden men who purchased a large mill at Cobocok to which the logs from extensive limits around Trout Lake and Hawk Lake were driven.

In later years, the originators of the project, an astute Minden businessman, Edward Noice, and George Stevens, who was an experienced saw mill operator, were bought out by Mr. James Peel of Lindsay and other interests.

A Minden Echo dated February 9, 1894, notes the following: "The Stanhope sawmill (originally built by Dan Buck Sr.) has been purchased from Stephen Dawson by George W. Stevens and William H. Stevens of Boskung."

Until they became connected with the Gull River Co. the Stevens brothers floated their lumber from the mill at Buck's Slides to a lumber yard on the location where Mrs. Rennie's beauty salon is now located.

The exact date when the Gull River Co. started its operations is difficult to determine. However, the first time it appeared on John Welch's blacksmith accounts was January 11, 1909 when a large order for boom chains and other driving equipment was filled. By this information one would assume that the company's loggers started in the bush in the fall of 1908 and that this order was in preparation for their first drive.

In the Gull River company's early years Mr. George Stevens managed the Cobocok mill, Jack Noice acted as camp clerk with Frank Gartshore as bush superintendent. Among the company's foremen were John Gouldie, Jim Stevenson and John Snell, Amos Trumbull, and in later years Leslie McGuire and Earl McKay.

Dysart Home And School

"One doesn't have to rise to great heights of intelligence to come to the conclusion that the world is in a mess," said Mr. Thos Hansen in his delightful talk to the members of the Dysart Home and School Association at its April meeting.

Mr. Hansen, an outstanding authority on all matters having to do with Canadian arts and crafts, predicted that the present unhappy situation was going to rapidly become worse unless man could find some way to use constructively the many extra hours of leisure which his ingenuity and automation of industry had already given to him.

"Most of us are bored to tears by our inability to do anything or create anything," said Mr. Hansen. "What Canada needs, and needs desperately, is a whole army of craftsmen able to express in their own art, music, pottery, glassware, metalware, woodwork and tapestries a really Canadian culture in which our abilities have been put constructively to use instead of us now relying on spectator sports or TV watching to fill our waking hours."

Even in the lowest levels of arts and crafts, the provision of even cheap and unattractive souvenirs of our country, we rely on imports from almost every country in the world to fill the need for things we should be creating ourselves. Mr. Hansen is "all agin it" and hopes that the day will come when Canadians will fill this gap by starting to create some attractive Canadian items of their own design and workmanship.

Mr. Hansen's talk to the Home and School members was a highlight of all the fine meetings held this year. He has a ready wit, a wealth of sheer and demonstrated ability in all phases of arts and crafts possessed by few other Canadians. For many years he has shared these abilities with us Canadians through his connection with the British American Oil Co. and this great Canadian organization is to be thanked and congratulated for making Mr. Hansen's visit a possibility to even small groups such as our local Home and School association.

More and more of us are getting interested in these things and a small but excellent exhibition of local abilities in arts and crafts had been set up and was the subject of much interest on the part of Mr. Hansen and the folk in attendance.

Mrs. Peggy Neville, with the assistance of Mrs. Ron Curry at the piano, had sung a few cheery songs for our pleasure early in the evening and, after Mr. Hansen's talk, a social half hour brought the meeting to an enjoyable conclusion.

Donald public school won the membership attendance award again.

The May meeting will be the final one of the season.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the many kind friends and relatives for their cards, gifts and visits during my stay in hospital and while convalescing at home. A special thanks to the doctors, nurses and staff of the Ross Memorial Hospital for their many kindnesses shown to me while there.

—Harold Coulter.

Mrs. John Hoyle would like to thank all those who turned out on Sunday, April 23 to help extinguish the fire which destroyed the main lodge at Camp Gay Venture. It was due to Mr. Percy Burk, Mr. Reg. Burk and Mr. Ron Harrison that the fire was seen and prevented from spreading throughout the remainder of the camp in spite of an extremely high wind. The Minden fire department was on hand and also gave considerable help in saving surrounding buildings. To all these people I would like to express my gratitude.

In Memoriam

Webb—In loving memory of a dear husband and father, David Austin, who passed away May 1, 1955:

He is gone, but not forgotten,

And, as dawns another year,
In our lonely hours of thinking

Thoughts of him are always near.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,

Friends may think the wound is healed,

But they little know the sorrow

That lies within the heart concealed.

—Sadly missed by wife Addie and family.

Sisson, who gave a very good talk and some interesting stories. He said he was very pleased to come to such a trappers' meeting and was surprised to see such a large turnout. He stressed the fact that this association with its success in fur sales has been a real help to the municipality this winter in dollars otherwise the municipality, no doubt would have to spend more money to help these people during the winter, and further would give any assistance he could to help this association.

This is typical of Holly Sisson who is always ready to help anyone, proof of the fact of his ever increasing popularity as the choice of our people in the municipality of Dysart.

Mr. C. W. Hodgson, M.P.,
Victoria and Haliburton counties was the next speaker and kept the crowd laughing at his jokes. He was really welcomed by the trappers and said he was very pleased to be home with the boys.

He said with a successful club as the Haliburton Trappers' Assn. which has moved ahead so rapidly it would be nice if the guides association would amalgamate, as, after all, both associations came under the wildlife of the county.

Mr. Hodgson asked the president if their was anything the club would like him to do as he was only too glad to do his best.

Mr. Hodgson was given a great hand by the trappers.

Mr. D. Wilson of the Department of Lands and Forests of Lindsay, was the next speaker. He thanked the president for the invitation to attend such a large meeting of trappers. He gave an outline of the work the department are doing in forestry work. This was Mr.
Wilson's first appearance before the trappers' group.

Mr. Perce Swanson, was the last speaker. His remarks of the association were indeed very encouraging to the trappers. His talk was short and was given a real hand by the members.

Euchre and crokinale were played and the big draw made.

Lunch was served to end the best evening the Hali-burton trappers have ever held. Many thanks to the speakers for their fine talks were extended by the trappers.
